About the Scholastic Shooting Trust Fund

The Scholastic Shooting Trust (SST) Fund is owned and controlled by the MidwayUSA Foundation, Inc., a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit, charitable organization established by Larry and Brenda Potterfield in 2007. The Potterfields began the Foundation as a result of their passion and interest in education for shooting, hunting, firearms safety and outdoor skills.

The SST Fund is an endowment to provide financial support for collegiate and high school shooting programs. The SST Fund, through its web site, gives alumni and other interested parties of universities, colleges and high schools the ability to financially support a school's competitive shooting program or financially assist in the start-up of a scholastic shooting program. Donations provide immediate grant potential for a school's shooting program (s) along with sustained funding from the investment earnings of the fund.

Each year the SST Fund will grant money to scholastic shooting programs based on the donations received in the current year and the earnings from the endowed principal of past donations. In general, 5% of the donations received will be used to fund grants for shooting programs. The idea is to provide permanent financial support for scholastic shooting programs. The SST will notify schools of a potential grant during the first week of June. School shooting programs may apply for grants by completing a grant application form and submitting it to the Foundation by June 15 or December 15 of each year. The grant application form will be available under "Forms" on the SST website. School shooting programs may use grant proceeds to fund travel, uniforms, ammunition, entry fees, scholarships, range rental, etc.; however, grant funds may not be used to purchase guns. The applications are reviewed and decided upon by the Foundation and its Board of Directors. Grants will be paid to the shooting programs on or about August 15 (June grants) or February 15 (December grants). The Foundation reserves the right to audit a shooting program & use of grant funds For more information visit: www.scholasticshootingtrust.org

In addition to funding for Iowa Schools at State Championship events, SST funding is available through the Iowa Target Incentive Program (TIP) <http://www.iowasctp.org/downloads/tipbrochure.pdf>

Looking to the future, the IHSCTA, while enjoying continual growth, looks forward to being an integral part of propelling our disciplines of shooting sports to the fore-front of high school spring athletics in the state of Iowa. With all of our continuing dedication, and the support of our schools, gun clubs, and communities, we know this will become reality. So once again, thank all of you for what you do and congratulations on another safe and successful season.

Iowa Kickoff Seminar for the Scholastic Pistol Program

The Scholastic Pistol Program (SPP) provides the opportunity for young adults to participate in the exciting and challenging family sport of "speed shooting" in a supportive environment taught by trained and supportive adult coaches focusing on the safe handling and use of handguns.

The basic competitive unit of SPP is a four-person squad; each squad shoots four (4) stages. In SPP competition, your time is your score. Total score for all stages will determine each competitor's match score. The combined scores of the four shooters become the squad's match score.

The Dragoon Chapter (Ankeny) Izaak Walton League and DNR Shooting Sports are sponsoring a kickoff seminar for the SPP on August 11th from 10:00AM to 4:00PM at the Dragoon Chapter Ikes. National SPP staff will be on hand to discuss the program with prospective coaches in the morning and coaches will then visit the range and have an opportunity to see and shoot the SPP stages in the afternoon.

If interested in attending, please RSVP to Ben Berka at Ben.Berka@dnr.iowa.gov by July 19th

National Archery in the Schools Program

The National Archery in the Schools Program (NASP) is a joint venture between state Departments of Education and Wildlife. Several archery equipment manufacturers and organizations are also partners. The program promotes student education and participation in the life long sport of Archery. The program's focus is to provide International style target archery training in physical education classes, for grades 4-12.

Getting a program started in your school is easy! Below are the program requirements:

- School administrator, athletic director and/or physical education teacher interested in running the program as part of a 2 week (minimum) in-school course.
- NASP archery equipment. The cost of the basic startup kit is currently ~$2500 and the cost may be covered by local donors or through an Iowa Archery in the Schools Foundation equipment grant (see grant information below). Equipment may also be checked out from the Iowa DNR (see checkout information below). The basic kit contains 11 Genesis compound bows, 5 dozen arrows, 5 targets, 1 backstop net and one repair kit. For more information on the equipment used in NASP go to <http://www.genesisbow.com/>
- Basic Archery Instructor (BAI) training for NASP program leaders. This program is conducted through the DNR and provides training to the teachers who will teach the kids. This training is offered at no cost to school teachers leading 2 week in-school NASP programs. The cost is currently $40 for all others wishing to attend. Training takes one full day and is typically conducted in a school gymnasium.
- Certified Basic Archery Instructors lead the in-school course for a minimum of two weeks. The program is typically conducted in a gymnasium as part of a physical education class.
- Once certified, BAI instructors have the option of starting after-school clubs for students interested in shooting year round. Many schools recruit parent/volunteers in addition to school-staff help to run a competitive NASP program from December through the end of February.

2013 Fall All-Coaches Conference

All Iowa head coaches, assistant coaches and adult volunteers who have registered with the 2013 Iowa High School and Scholastic Clay Target Program are invited to attend the annual all coaches meeting scheduled for September 7th in Ames, IA.

This annual meeting is an important part of program development for the Iowa High School and Scholastic Clay Target Program where coaches can reflect on their successes and get the tools and information they need to set a positive path for continued growth in the future.

In addition, the annual Iowa High School Clay Target Association meeting and officer elections are conducted at this time.

Please mark your calendars for September 7th in Ames and plan to attend! Additional information and agenda will be distributed to all registered program coaches and adult volunteers as the date gets closer.

Starting an Iowa High School and SCTP Program

Starting an Iowa High School and Scholastic Clay Target Program is simpler than you think! The basic requirements for a program are certified coaches, a place to practice, and the minimum number of athletes to form a team (5 for trap, 3 for skeet and sporting clays). Teams, coaches and athletes must register through the Iowa DNR and Scholastic Clay Target Program National office each season.

Once volunteer coaches are identified, they must become certified. The most popular options for coach certification are the DNR Basic Shotgun Coach program or the National Rifle Association / USA Shooting Level I Coaches course.

Iowa also has a very large network of volunteer coaches who work together to help one another develop their programs. The Iowa High School Clay Target Association (IHSCTA) has a board of volunteer coaches with each region of the state represented by a "zone director" or "discipline director" (for skeet and sporting clays). Directors are well connected and have the "been there done that" knowledge to help new programs with frequently asked questions and provide other contacts and resources within their region.

For more information on how to start a program, visit the Iowa DNR website or contact Ben Berka, Iowa DNR Shooting Sports Coordinator at Ben.Berka@dnr.iowa.gov or 515-313-8048.
